
GTWCONSULTANCY
SECU REMOVAL
www.gtwconsultancy.co.uk

Removal of a Customer Brief

Based on the 2003 Licensing Act section 140/143 drunkenness, disorderly conduct, I am hereby requesting that you vacate the premises immediately. Your right of admission to the premises is being revoked under the 4 licensing objectives , three of which you have breached - namely, the prevention of crime and disorder. public safety & the prevention of public nuisance. In the event that you fail to comply with this request, we reserve the legal right to remove you from the premises using necessary and proportionate force.

Do you understand the implications of my request?

Please be advised that we are recording this interaction using a body-worn camera for the purpose of our safety and yours. You have the right to this data by making a request for a SAR (Subject Access Request) from the company. Additionally, this information may be used as evidence against you in the event of a violent or aggressive altercation, which may involve the police.

Do you acknowledge the recording and its potential uses?